

i wish u liked being home like me so we could relate well i did until thanksgiving or so i think i would like being home if i lived in nora's house, not lived but crawled up there like a spare rat sometimes im sry 4 being such a downer probably u do not have to apologize right now also albert and derek dancing.... have never seen that albert dances often i think but its mostly just with his arms i had a dream i kept trying to convert analog to digital w an hdmi cord and it wasn't working and for some reason i was staring at the back of ur head the whole time and u weren't moving i don't think i had any equipment either it was like a glitch that's a little terrifying

2 im going to listen to frankie cosmos until my ears bleed and draw a picture nora an in the SAME ROOM that can't exist same party.

wow

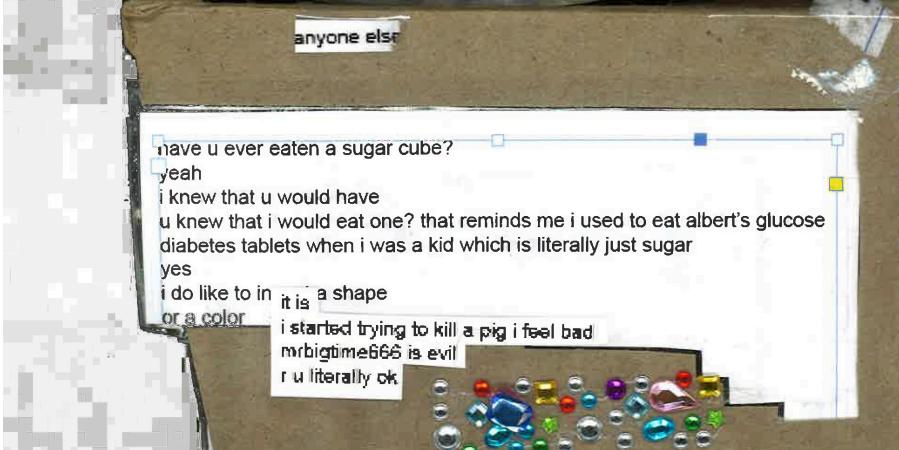

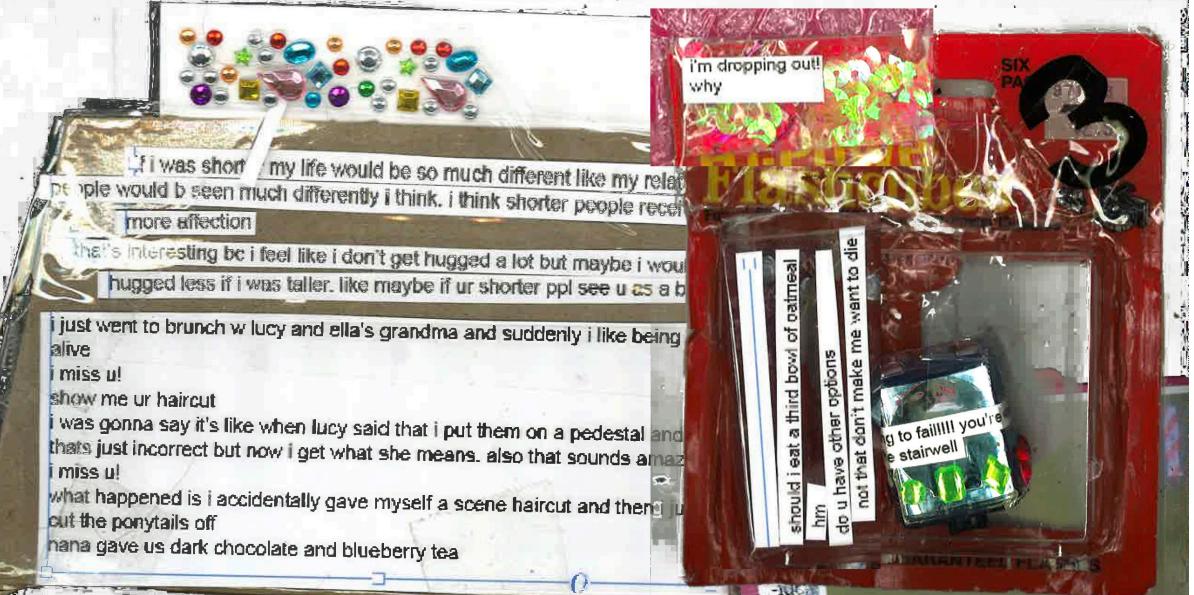

i was thinking about today how you refuse to orchestrate me in any situation

miss ui
show me in haircut was gonna say it's like when lucy said that i put them on a pedestal and
miss ui
what happened is i accidentally gave myself a severe haircut and then i just cut the poogytails off hanna gave us dark chocolate and blueberry tea
miss ui

have u ever eaten a sugar cube? yeah i knew that u would have u knew that i would eat one? that reminds me i used to eat albert's glucose diabetes tablets when i was a kid which is literally just sugar yes i do like to in it is a shape or a color i started trying to kill a pig i feel bad mrbigtime666 is evil r u literally ok egretfully i snapchatted him the video of the limping dog with the big duster tail because i thought that everyone alive should see it, but my conclusion is for future shows i will only invite people who will come im really sorry he didn't come i wish i could knock him out happy 4:20 u can brood all u want

by kai POV

take this as my last official public brooding, at least until the next sad thing happens.

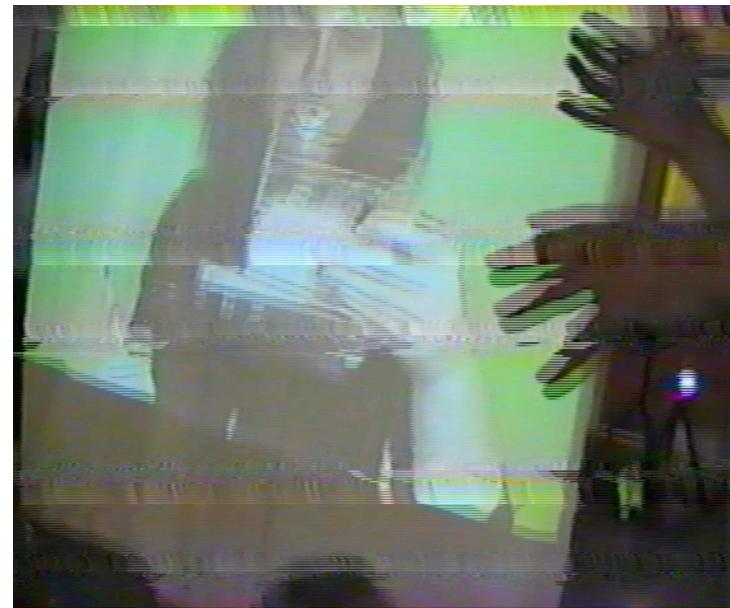

me making an hour and a half journey to a tattoo supply shop that doesn't exist anymore: i love being dominated holy fuck why did u dislike that!

LIVING WORLD

i found a pink dunkin donuts receipt on the road today and i picked it up and put it on my wall my ears nora omg i haven't put mine on my wall yet i think these pics are extremely interesting like i believe these should b in museum. my mom looks insane i've never seen her look like that in my life also everyone else looks nuts as well i barely recognize ur mom but i appreciate these is this not art. is it not it is

oh ok yeah

i want to b friends i hope if anything if i lose friendships in my life and ppl think im weird its because i was myself and treated ppl the way i thought that i should now stupid i that makes complete sense i was thinking about why i'm drawn to gross things and i was thinking about how when i get really mad or feel frustrated i want to like rip things and make a mess and like destroy stuff and that reminds me of it's like u feel like maybe nothing matters so why not just ruin it .dk if that relates but there's other reasons i like gross things or whatever bc im not frustrated all the time or maybe i am... no yeah that definitely relates. when i'm depressed i want to go mess up things in my life but it's also hard to tell if it's not also empowered it's just ruining something before something else ruins it like a pre-emptive strike, but on the other hand at least ur not clutching to things that are shallow my bagel wasn't even that good bc it's so quiet in here and i was worried about getting crumbs on the ground right there is a sense of empowerment

LISTED 236B

hes like im sorry i feel really bad i keep speaking and then regretting it ugly might swallow green glass like i just sound

love ur mom i saw this last night but i was too tired to move my arms but it made me glad 8:39 AM like yeah probably and she was like i think there's something to be said for quiet and laid low for a couple years before u warmed up like me and i was like no not really and she said smth wondering if like it was bc u were more that reminds me my mom asked if u had a lot of friends at school and i was

When u break out over a text or smth and cry and believe ur life is over and ur feelings are hurt and then they apologize and ur like lol it's ok... but if u only knew... yeah i have that happen to me a fair amount i have not been sending all the songs i especially love to u in the past months i've been listening to them but now i will continue to i think awooga is on two different albums but i like that one too i forgot to tell u i made my family make me falafel tonight i think the best song i ever wrote might've been when i was 16 and i lost the recording when my phone got ran over by cars interesting theres so much important stuff all the time on ur phone and its not organized at all and could break at any time

lik to my actual friends crazy

the bit

day

a good time i keep still wanting to smash my phone but that's crazy i want to go fully off the grid but also then i can't talk to my actual friends who are on the grid what u mean off the grid i should do that just like smash all of my equipment no.

i decided im leaving school and going home and not doing anything i'm just going to consider things and maybe think about pink room a little bit sounds good to me i am doing the bare minimum also be of very nearly crying in public today, many times nothing wrong with that (italics emphasized text) i think the best song i ever wrote might've been when i was 16 and i lost the recording when my phone got ran over by cars interesting there's so much important stuff all the time on ur phone and its not organized at all and could break at any time my one critique is at the last part you say "but i'm not sure what to say about it" and i shouldn't feel like u have answers already anyway but by saying that i feel like ur kind of undermining yourself that's ok i hope it's a good time panic no need for it
